

Tampa Monthly Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends
Meeting for Worship with a Concern for Business

Minutes

9 Eleventh Month 2014

Opening worship

Meeting Clerk began the gathering with a quote:

The Quaker Meeting is meant to be a blessed community—a living testimony to a social order that embodies God's peace, justice, love, compassion, and joy, and is an example and invitation to a better way of life. Like our other testimonies, community can be a prophetic call to the rest of society.

Business

Minutes of Tenth Month were approved with corrections.

Treasurer Chris Hugues reported that our income is meeting our expenses. Also presented, was the progress on our building fund. We have raised about $59,000 of our $110,000 amount to raise. Treasurer has reopened our Scott Trade account in order to accept a gift of stock.

Committee Reports

First Day School – No report.

Hospitality – No report

Library – No report

Ministry and Counsel – Nancy Triscritti reported the upcoming Friendly Dinner date November 29. Adult First Day School discussion of Patti Levering's Michener lecture begins November 16. The meeting approved once again adopting a needy family for Christmas again this year.

Nominating – No report.

Peace and Social Concerns – Karen Putney reported that the Moral Injury workshop went well and that there is a need for more work in this area. The committee wishes to further discern community needs and our role in helping.
